

AMERICAN DERMATOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION 2017 RESIDENT/FELLOW RESEARCH AWARD

CALL FOR PROPOSALS - GENERAL INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS

The American Dermatologic Association is pleased to announce its 2017 Dermatology Resident/Fellow research award to two individuals whose research is specifically related to the following subjects:

- ❖ The integral nature of Dermatology in Medicine.
- ❖ Issues and matters leading to the marginalization of Dermatology.

- Awardees will be expected to present their research and findings to the general membership of the American Dermatological Association (ADA) at the Annual meeting in Boston, MA, on July 19-23, 2017.
- The cost of attendance including travel, room, and board will be paid by the ADA.
- The awardees will receive an additional monetary grant of $500..

Applicants must be an active Dermatology resident in good standing in an ACGME accredited Dermatology program or a Dermatology fellow having completed an ACGME accredited Dermatology residency within 5 years. Applicants must have the approval and capacity to present at the 2017 ADA annual meeting. [Awardee will be expected to attend the entire meeting] A mentor who is a faculty member of an ACGME accredited Dermatology program must be identified and agree to provide support for the applicants project. [Mentors need not be ADA members] Applications must be submitted electronically with an attestation from the applicant's mentor and department chairperson unless they are one and the same.

Application Deadline:

June 15, 2017 (Applications received after this date will not be considered)

About the ADA

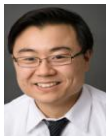

Founded in 1876, the American Dermatological Association (ADA) was the first national dermatological society in the United States. Its members are recognized leaders in Dermatology research, education, organizational medicine, and patient care. Its charge is to further the advancement of all aspects of scientific endeavor in Dermatology. In the execution of its enduring mission, it has been responsible for the development of a number of dermatologic organizations including the American Academy of Dermatology, the Society for Investigative Dermatology, and the American Board of Dermatology. Membership in the ADA is achieved through nomination and election based on meritorious contributions to the field of Medicine and Dermatology.

2016 ADA RESIDENT RESEARCH

AWARDEES

Syril Keena Que, dermatology resident, University of Connecticut, Research topic: Comparing the Diagnostic Accuracy and Cost-effectiveness of Dermatologists and General Practitioners: A Systematic Review.

"Shuai" Steven Xu, dermatology resident, Northwestern, Research topic: Topical Drug Approvals from 2000-2014: Challenges to Innovation and Implications for Dermatologists.

These awardees presented their research findings at the 136th Annual meeting of the American Dermatological Association in Santa Barbara, CA, on October 21, 2016. Their abstracts are posted on the ADA website (www.amer-derm-assn.org) on the Annual 2016 Annual Meeting tab.

Applications are available online on the ADA website under ADA 2017 RESIDENT RESEARCH AWARD
Email: ameriderm1930@gmail.com Phone: 305-804-1150
<http://www.ada1.org/awards-grants/cfp.pdf>