American Dermatological Association
Archives
Photographs: Individuals, Ca. 1880-1998
#2000-7

Scope and content note: These photographs are head shots gathered at various times by the Association. Photographs of members comprise most of the collection; however, authors of articles that have appeared in various dermatological journals and other individuals are also included. The photographs are arranged in alphabetical order. The date following is generally the date elected to the Association; however, it is sometimes the date of the photograph itself.
